Stakes Schedule 2020-21 Season

Stakes have been confirmed for August and September 2020 and it is NZTR's intention to maintain similar stakes for the rest of the season.

Rating 65, maiden races, three-year-old and two-year-old races have been programmed for the first two months but races above the Rating 65 level will be open entry. This policy will be reviewed.

The one exception in the first two months of the season is the programming of a $30,000 Rating 72 and Rating 82 at the premier meeting at Hastings on September 19.

The open entry races at all feature meetings – apart from black-type races - will have a $30,000 stake, unless the highest rating runner is rated at 65 or below. In that case the stake will be $22,500. In the unlikely event that an open entry race becomes a maiden race, it will be run for $10,000.

The minimum stakes levels for black-type races have been maintained. This is $200,000 for Group I races, $100,000 for Group II, $70,000 for Group III and $50,000 for Listed races.

Stake money will be paid back to 14th place in all races, providing there are sufficient runners. For races where the starting limit is less than 14 but have a capacity field at withdrawal time, additional money will be paid to the winner. If the starting limit, for example, is 12, the stake money that would have been allocated to the 13th and 14th placegetters will be added to the winning prize. If the limit is 10, the money that would have been paid to the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th placegetters will be added to the winner's stake.

There will be no change to the stake money when races do not attract a capacity field.

There will be no nomination nor acceptance fees for any starters, with the exception of black-type races.

However, horses which are nominated but do not start will be charged a non-acceptance fee. Horses that accept but are then scratched will be charged a scratching fee, unless a veterinary certificate is provided as an explanation for the scratching. A non-acceptance fee will also be payable when a horse has been nominated for two or more races but starts only once.

The Group III Metric Mile, which is normally run at Awapuni, will be run over 1400m at New Plymouth on September 26 and the Grp III Northland Breeders, which is normally run at Ruakaka, will be held at Te Rapa on September 5.
