UPDATED RULES OF RACING ARE NOW AVAILABLE ON THE NZTR WEBSITE – WWW.NZRACING.CO.NZ.

Amendments made to the Rules, which took effect from 1 May 2015, and changes gazetted today, to take effect from 12.01am tomorrow, 15 May 2015, are incorporated in these Rules. These latest changes regard:

1. removal of the Fourth Appendix (Prohibited Substances) from the Rules
2. introduction of Prohibited Substance Regulations (also available on the NZTR website under Regulations)
3. addition of an initial eight substance thresholds (section 4 of Prohibited Substance Regulations)
4. introduction of a threshold for cobalt at a mass concentration of 0.20 milligrams per litre in urine. The NZTR Board, while approving a cobalt threshold at 0.20 milligrams per litre in urine, agreed this threshold level would be reconsidered with a view to reducing it to 0.10 milligrams per litre in urine in the event the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities (IFHA) reduced its recommended threshold to 0.10 milligrams per litre, and subject to the threshold in Australia at the time of consideration. The IFHA's recommendation is still to be endorsed by the Association of Official Racing Chemists (AORC) and the International Group of Specialist Racing Veterinarians (IGSRV), but it is anticipated that a firm proposal will be made to the IFHA ExCo by the end of this month. Work is still continuing to establish an equivalent threshold in blood.

NZTR APPOINTS SENIOR HANDICAPPER AND RACE PLANNER

New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing (NZTR) has appointed Mr Dennis Quirke to the position of Senior Handicapper and Race Planner.

Dennis has worked as part of the Racing Club Partnership Programme for the last three years with a focus on the financial analysis of race meetings and club accounts.

Dennis is a Member of The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants and prior to working for NZTR he had extensive experience in analyst and finance roles.

Matthew Hall, General Manager of Racing and Chief Handicapper (Acting), said on his appointment: "Dennis has conducted extensive form analysis and rating of New Zealand thoroughbred racing over a long period of time. He has demonstrated a high degree of proficiency in analysing and assessing races and will be a great asset to the Handicapping team at NZTR."

"Dennis has also demonstrated the advanced numerical and analytical skills necessary for the handicapping and race planning role."

"His principal responsibility will be handicapping but he will also be supporting me in a number of areas including implementation of any racing and handicapping initiatives and liaising with Regional Programming Committees."

"Dennis will also be involved in the process of reviewing ANZ ratings and monitoring the performance of New Zealand horses, both domestically and in Australia, in preparation for the 2014-15 Pattern Committee meeting in August."

Dennis will be supported by Handicapper, George Strickland. George is to be congratulated on the outstanding contribution he has made in the role since the departure of Brett Scelly for Hong Kong.

This appointment takes immediate effect.

COMPULSORY REPORTING OF HORSE RETIREMENT FROM RACING

From 1 May 2015 it is compulsory for the Racing Manager of a horse to notify NZTR when their horse has been retired. There is no fee to do so.

NZTR Form SR24 for registering a horse's retirement (or death), to align with changes to Rule 417, can be found at <http://www.nzracing.co.nz/OnHorseFiles/Downloads/Forms/SR24.pdf>

This form is not required to be completed for horses retiring from racing and immediately entering the Thoroughbred breeding population.

The form also provides for a horse to be de-registered in the event an Owner wishes to prevent a horse from racing or breeding in the case of, for example, injury. The horse may not be re-registered except with the permission of NZTR.

The data gained through changes to Rule 417, in line with Australia, will provide the industry with greater insight into the reasons for retirement and horses' activities post racing. These statistics can be used to better direct welfare initiatives.

The changes to Rule 417 are as follows:

NOTIFICATION ~~ON HORSE'S DEATH~~ OF RETIREMENT OR DEATH OF HORSE

417 (1) On the retirement of any registered horse from racing and/or breeding, the Owner or Racing Manager of the Horse (as the case may be) at the time of retirement shall, within one month of the date on which the horse was retired, notify NZTR of the retirement by completing the prescribed form and forwarding it to NZTR.

(2) On receipt of a notice of retirement of a horse under Rule 417(1), NZTR shall de-register the horse from racing and/or breeding (as the case may be) and update the appropriate register(s). Rule 411(3) shall apply to a horse that has been de-registered under this Rule.

(1) (3) On the death of any registered horse, the Owner or Racing Manager of the Horse (as the case may be) at the time of death shall, within one month of the date on which the horse died, notify NZTR ~~in writing to that effect~~ of the death of the horse by completing the prescribed form and forwarding it to NZTR.

Registered Amateur Rider numbers have soared from around 25 jockeys five years ago to close to 60 in 2015 season. This elevation in interest has come about in part to the increase in opportunities these riders are now being provided with.

The last few seasons has seen the creation of the Flair National Amateur Rider Series scheduled up and down the country between May and the end of September.

These races are run at both mid-week jumping race days and on some of the biggest race days of the year. The latest addition to high profile days with an amateur rider race is the middle day of Grand National week at Riccarton Park in Christchurch. Last year, this race, the Duke of Gloucester Cup, attracted a capacity field of 16 horses and was run as one of the most celebrated races in New Zealand. It provided a fairy tale moment for South Island-based amateur, Kezia Murphy as she won on the Cheri Trembath trained, Putt For Cash.

Other big days for the amateurs include the Pakuranga Hunt Cup Day at Ellerslie in the third week of August.

The Flair National Amateur Rider Series has been sponsored by FLAIR, a group that promotes the interest of women in horse racing, for several years.
