FROM THE HORSE'S MOUTH

J Swap Contractors Matamata Breeders' Stakes Day offers a glimpse at the northern region's best two year olds. The $100,000 Group Two J Swap Contractors Matamata Breeders' Stakes (for two-year-old fillies) and $50,000 Listed Reid & Harrison (1980) Limited Slipper (two-year-old colts & geldings) features a quality card of juveniles. The older horses get their moment in the $50,000 Listed Marks Ewen & Associates Kaimai Stakes over 2000m. Raceday tickets available at <http://www.matamataracingclub.co.nz/Raceday/Race-Day-Packages.aspx>

Unfortunately Nashville will not be vying for a hat-trick in the Group One $200,000 Haunui Farm Weight for Age Classic this Saturday. However the race still promises to be a quality affair with Puccini and Soriano having a rematch over the mile. Former Hong Kong Derby winner Fay Fay will look to spoil the occasion and has the class to win for Cambridge based partnership Trevor & Martin Cruz. Racing fans will be keen to see last year's Champion Two Year old Vespa resume in the Tui Backing a Winner Since 1889 3YO. The Elusive City colt is being targeted at the Hardy Trade Wellington Guineas and will look for a successful start to his campaign. Raceday tickets available at <http://www.otakimaoriracing.co.nz/page/group1day.aspx>

Also a friendly reminder that Derby day nominations close at 12pm on Tuesday, 24th February and withdrawals close at 10am on Wednesday, 25th February.

Auckland Cup Day Nominations close at 12pm on Friday, 27th February and Withdrawals close at 10am on Saturday, 28th February.

NEW ZEALAND CHIEF HANDICAPPER APPOINTED TO HONG KONG JOCKEY CLUB

New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing's Chief Handicapper, Brett Scelly, is to leave New Zealand in March 2015 to take up a position as Handicapping and Race Planning Manager at the Hong Kong Jockey Club.

Scelly, 37, a New Zealand citizen, originally worked at NZTR as Handicapper in 2005-2008 before being appointed Senior (Managing) Handicapper at Racing NSW. He returned to New Zealand in 2011 and was appointed to the role of Chief Handicapper following the retirement of long standing Chief Handicapper Dean Nowell in 2013.

"It will certainly be hard to leave New Zealand as this is definitely home" Scelly said "but this is such a great opportunity and I have always wanted to work in Hong Kong."

"I've had the opportunity to handicap some great horses in my time here including Jimmy Choux, Mufhasa, Ocean Park, Dundeel and Veyron. That has reinforced to me how good the level of racing is in New Zealand".

"I know that handicapping is always a contentious issue and that some people will always disagree with our decisions, but I believe that the NZTR Handicapping Department is doing a great job of implementing the NZTR Handicapping Policy".

“At the international level, New Zealand based horses are performing well and I am leaving NZTR with a great platform to maintain the international integrity of our black type races”.

NZTR Chief Executive Greg Purcell said: “I would like to thank Brett for his efforts over the last three years and congratulate him on his appointment to the Hong Kong Jockey Club.”

Last year’s broodmare session also posted good increases, with the average up 26%, the clearance rate solid at 79%, and the median up a staggering 108%.

EQUIDAYS GOES ‘OFF THE TRACK’ FOR 2015

Equidays is pleased to announce the addition of Beyond the Barrier NZ’s Dunstan Ex-Factor 2015 competition to New Zealand’s premier equestrian event lineup, held at Mystery Creek Events Centre on 16–18 October this year.

With an aim to educate the public about the potential of Thoroughbreds as sport horses and the importance of re-homing retired racehorses, the competition will see 10–15 invited sport horse riders from a variety of disciplines schooling an off-the-track (OTT) thoroughbred for a new career.

Beyond the Barriers NZ’s Dunstan Ex-Factor 2015 will see the invited riders source their own off the track (OTT) Thoroughbred, which has had no prior sport horse education, and train and produce that horse between now and Equidays in October. During the three days of Equidays, competitors will present their horses in a three-round competition.

Gina Schick and Nicky Wallace, co-founders of Beyond the Barriers agree the word 'retired' brings to mind an elderly horse ready to be put to pasture and this is where public education is so valuable. Horses 'retiring' from the race track are so often four, five, six years old.

Schick and Wallace have created this not-for-profit organisation to promote the adaptability and versatility of this breed as sport horses by showcasing successfully re-homed Thoroughbreds in their post-racing lives both in New Zealand and internationally, and communicating with people who may be able to provide suitable post-racing homes for Thoroughbreds.
