Ben Nettleton Appointed To New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing Board

The Chairman of the Members' Council of New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing (NZTR), Peter Francis, is pleased to announce the appointment of Ben Nettleton, a Barrister and Solicitor, to the Board of NZTR.

Nettleton graduated from the University of Otago with a Bachelor of Laws and Bachelor of Commerce in 2009. Following admission to the Bar, he worked for a Queens Counsel before joining French Burt Partners Law Firm in July 2010.

He advises primarily on commercial, corporate and property matters, and in dispute resolution/civil litigation. His particular areas of interest include media/entertainment and agri-business.

He previously worked as a journalist, and radio broadcaster/producer, including at More FM, and in television within the production team of Trackside TV. He has also tutored in business management and business law.

He is a member of the New Zealand Institute of Directors, and is involved with a number of commercial boards and non-profit organisations.

On his appointment, Ben Nettleton stated he was looking forward to making a positive contribution to the governance of the New Zealand Racing industry. "I have a passion for the racing industry and a keen interest in its growth and development."

"I am a regular racegoer. Racing has a long history in my family and I presently have an interest in a broodmare and a filly."

"My interest is in how racing can be developed to ensure inter-generational interest, development and engagement. It is critical racing is equally if not more relevant for both mine and future generations."

NZTR Chairman Matthew Goodson said he welcomed the appointment of Ben Nettleton to the Board, given his racing industry knowledge, and legal and broadcasting experience.

Canterbury's Iconic Week Supported

Support for Canterbury's iconic week of celebration in November has received a boost with Christchurch Casino agreeing to continue its significant financial support to the two big race events.

The nationally recognised Cup races will continue to be known as the Christchurch Casino New Zealand Trotting Cup at Addington and the Christchurch Casino New Zealand Cup at Riccarton Park.

These races and the five days of racing in November are an integral component of New Zealand Cup and Show Week in Christchurch where the New Zealand Metropolitan Trotting Club, the Canterbury A&P Show and the Canterbury Jockey Club combine with the Christchurch City Council to present Canterbury's biggest and brightest event.

This agreement continues the Casino's involvement with both races and is a positive response to what has been a difficult period since the earthquakes.

Canterbury Jockey Club Chairman Jeff McCall said his Club was delighted to be a party to this announcement.

"So many things have changed forever in our city, it is so pleasing that the Casino has seen fit to renew their association with us and commit to the future", he said.

New Zealand Metropolitan Trotting Club Chairman David Rankin echoed these sentiments "it would be easy to walk away at times like these but their commitment is a massive statement regarding the importance of the week'.

Barry Thomas, Chairman of Christchurch Casinos Limited said that the Casino is pleased to be able to continue its support.

"Times are tough but this is Canterbury at its best and we feel privileged to be a part of it, a time when all Cantabrians can celebrate and present a positive message to the rest of the country".

Christchurch City Council Mayor Bob Parker is delighted that the Christchurch Casino is continuing their long term support of these two key racing events in the New Zealand Cup and Show Week.

The Christchurch Casino New Zealand Trotting Cup will be run on Tuesday 13 November with the Christchurch Casino New Zealand Cup on 17 November.
