Punt Like A Pro

Confused about the different bet types? Don't be!

Win

If your runner (horse or greyhound) wins, you win

Place

If your runner comes 1st, 2nd or 3rd, you collect. There is no 3rd place dividend if there are 7 runners or less

Trifecta

Feeling confident? Pick three runners to come 1st, 2nd and 3rd in the exact order and you win

Each Way

This is a combination of a Win and a Place bet. A $5 Each Way costs $10 ($5 to Win and $5 to Place)

Easybet

If you can't decide, an Easybet is the simple and easy way to get your selection(s) for an event

Quinella

Pick two runners to come 1st and 2nd in either order. If they do, you win

Boxed Quinella

To increase your chances of collecting, you can pay a bit extra to choose three or more runners. If any two of them finish 1st and 2nd in either order, you win

What to say when placing a bet

Meeting & Race

Tell the TAB operator what meeting you are betting on eg. "Meeting 2, Race 3"

Amount

Tell the TAB operator the amount that you are betting eg. "Five dollars"

Type

Tell the TAB operator the type of bet you are making eg. "To Win"

Number

Tell the TAB operator the number(s) of the Runner(s) you are betting on eg. "Number 5"

Now put it all together -
"Meeting 2, Race 3, $5 to Win on Number 5"

Trifecta - Boxed

The easiest and most popular way to take a Trifecta.

Pick the number of runners that you like, and by boxing the Trifecta you buy all the possible combinations of any three of them coming 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

With a Boxed Trifecta, you can also select a $1 or 50c unit bet, or a percentage bet.

With a percentage bet you pay a percentage of the cost of a full $1 unit, in return for a percentage of the dividend.

CONGRATULATIONS

VICKI PASCOE

New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing (NZTR) has this season introduced a Service Award, which is designed to acknowledge the efforts of people who have given lengthy - and often unsung - service to the thoroughbred industry.

NZTR is delighted to acknowledge the work of Vicki Pascoe, who this afternoon will become the latest Service Award recipient.

Vicki has made a substantial contribution to the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Association (NZTBA), at both a district and national level, with the education and training of young people in the racing industry being a particular passion.

She has had a lifelong interest in horses and the thoroughbred industry and joined the Auckland branch of the NZTBA - and became a broodmare owner - as a teenager.

She joined the Waikato TBA branch when she and her husband Terry moved to Taupiri, more than 30 years ago, and set up an agistment business under the Club Med Lodge banner.

Vicki became a committee member of the Waikato TBA branch in the early 1990s and in 2003 became the branch's first female president.

Vicki has been a NZTBA councillor since 2008 - when she became just the second woman to join the council - and is now a member of the council executive committee.

She has had a long involvement with the equine education and training sector and is on the Board of the NZ Equine Education Trust and the NZTBA rep on the Equine and Racing Industry Participation Group (IPG).

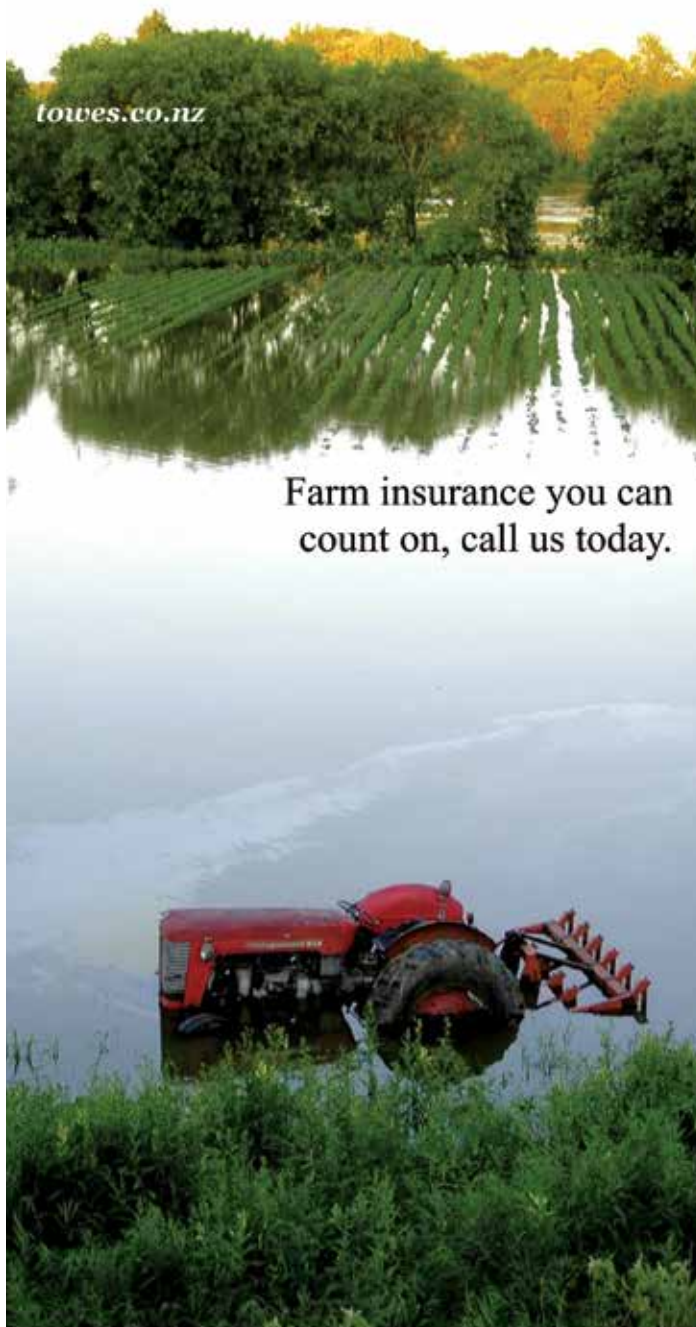

Vicki and Terry raced and bred the Group 1 winner Honor Bound, who was trained at Te Aroha, and the NZ Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes meeting at Te Aroha has long been a high point of the racing calendar for Vicki.
