Race 2	FARMLANDS/SIMPSON CONTRACTING LTD 1200
---------------	---

PINKY PROMISE was a late scratching at 12.15pm after being found to have filling in the left foreleg when arriving on course. Trainer K Lawrence was advised that a veterinary clearance would be required prior to PINKY PROMISE next racing.
OSCAR began awkwardly and was then slow over the early stages.
GINGERBREAD MAN was slow away then raced wide throughout.
RHYTHM GURU got its head up when being steadied approaching the first turn.

DANELIZEE was held up for a short distance near the 300m. J McDonald the rider of DEVILLAIN reported that in his opinion, the gelding would improve with further experience.
Race 3	PETER BARRY MEMORIAL
ALDEBARAN STAR was buffeted for some distance shortly after leaving the barriers. LIKEAPINS got its head up passing the 1000m when being steadied off the heels of ALDEBARAN STAR. LIKEAPINS then over-raced for some distance in the back straight. ALDEBARAN STAR raced keenly in the early stages. When questioned into the run of VANDENNE rider J McDonald reported that the mare was comfortable in the going however was unsuited to the slow tempo over the early stages.
Race 4	FERGUSSONS MOTOR LODGE/THORNTON LODGE MOTEL MAIDEN 3YO
TSAR REFORMER raced ungenerously in the early and middle stages and got its head up for some distance passing the 1200m. THE BACHELOR hung inwards entering the home straight and a short distance further on was taken wider when GOLD WEDDING shifted out. TSAR REFORMER raced greenly over the final 400m and had to be straightened.
Race 5	DANNEVIRKE HUNT MAIDEN 1600
SADLERS ROCK and BAT PAD were slow to begin. SADLERS ROCK had to steady momentarily entering the back straight when in restricted room. V Johnson (TOP OF THE STRETCH) was advised to exercise care when shifting ground after dictating A'GUIN ACE inwards near the 1200m
