from today's run and would be better suited on a softer track over more ground. Jockey D Walker, the rider of LUCKY SPUR said that he intended to ride the gelding in a more forward position, however, when the pace steadied in the middle stages, he found himself further back than expected.

Race 9

NEW ZEALAND BLOODSTOCK INSURANCE 1400 (1400)

FAIRWAY WISH and FRITZY BOY raced keenly in the early stages.

ELUSIVE TRACY raced wide throughout.

BRACKENWOOD race wide rounding the home turn.

FAIRWAY WISH was held up and disappointed for a run from the 500 metres until passing the 200 metres.

Approaching the 100 metres, GOLDEN MISS raced in restricted room.

Race 10 FAGAN FORD METRIC MILE (1600)

BIRCHINO, LADY PLATINUM, KAPE TOWN and SEDUCER were all severely crowded on jumping between PHEASANT which jumped awkwardly and shifted out and MINNALEO which jumped awkwardly and shifted in.

MINNALEO raced keenly in the early stages and got its head in the air on several occasions.

Passing the 1200 BIRCHINO steadied to avoid the heels of KAPE TOWN which shifted outwards.

Near the 1000 metres when the pace steadied, KAPE TOWN (D Walsh) improved quickly and in doing so crowded

PHEASANT, MINNALEO and SEDUCER. Jockey Walsh was issued with a warning and was advised that a repetition may lead to more direct action being taken.

SEDUCER raced wide from the 1000 metres.

In the early part of the straight, DRIFT was held up when unable to obtain a clear run and near the 200 metres, became unbalanced after coming together with KAPE TOWN. As a result, DRIFT became unbalanced, shifted in and hampered PHEASANT which was losing ground.

Post-race veterinary examinations of PHEASANT and CHAIR UP revealed no abnormalities.
