Race 2	ANDERSON ACCOUNTING HURDLE
Prior to the first race the Stipendiary Stewards were advised by the stable representative for XALTED that P Ormsby the declared rider for this runner had advised that he would not be attending the meeting as he was over-weight. With attempts by the Stipendiary Stewards to contact P Ormsby being unsuccessful a minor infringement notice alleging a breach of Rule 330(3)(c) (over-weight) was lodged with the Judicial Committee. Due to Mr Ormsby's non-attendance at the meeting the matter was adjourned until a date to be set. APPLAUD (S Sanders) was slow away. CASH KINGDOM (M Cropp) ran down the first fence hampering TED'LL DO (S Houston) and VICTOR LUDORUM (K Veenendaal). BARTOTE (A Kuru) and GOLDEN CUP WINNER (C Leveque) both put in poor jumps at the first fence. GOLDEN CUP WINNER continued to jump indifferently at the rear throughout.

TED'LL DO ran down the three fences in the home straight on the first occasion, and continued to run its fences down for the remainder of the race.

VICTOR LUDORUM, CHAINEDINKATRAZ (G Walsh) and APPLAUD all put in poor jumps at the second fence.

VICTOR LUDORUM hit the third fence with rider K Veenendaal losing her right iron which she did not regain until near the 1600 metres. When attempting to regain the use of the iron VICTOR LUDORUM hampered APPLAUD near the 1900 metres.
