Commenced to over-race shortly after shifting ground outward as a result. C Waddell (MIZ OLDFIELDS ROAD) admitted a charge of careless riding under Rule 638 (1) (d) after she angled her mount in shortly after the start and caused a check to both WALNUT and AMORATA both of which were racing to the inside. After considering all evidence the JCA suspended Ms Waddell’s licence to ride in races from the close of racing on Thursday 27 October 2016 up to and including racing on Thursday 10 November 2016 (3 days)

MANIC MONDAY (T Johnson) – raced erratically and hung outwards throughout. Near the 500 metres, restrained off the heels of a runner ahead and in doing so shifted out abruptly into the line of SNEAKING SUSPICION C Waddell which clipped heels and fell. Investigations by Stewards revealed that the erratic racing pattern of MANIC MONDAY in shifting out abruptly was the cause of the fall and were of the view that the riding of T Johnson could not be held solely responsible. T Johnson confirmed his mount hung badly throughout and shifted out further than he intended when restrained off heels. Trainer A Fieldes was advised the gelding must trial before next starting. He in turn advised that its future as a racing proposition would now be re-considered.

SNEAKING SUSPICION (C Waddell) – fell near the 300 metres after clipping the heels of MANIC MONDAY which had shifted out into its line of running. C Waddell was attended to by paramedics and was uninjured. SNEAKING SUSPICION suffered minor lacerations to the left foreleg and was treated by a veterinary surgeon at the course.

Race 6	TONY SEWART MAX TARR 1200
---------------	----------------------------------

HANDFULL (M Tanaka)- ambled out of the barrier and refused to gallop competitively for the duration of the event. Trainer S Brown advised that the gelding had not shown such tendencies at trials or jumpouts prior to this raceday start and offered that today being the first time in blinkers may have attributed to the behavior. He was advised that a warning would be placed on the racing manners of HANDFULL and the gelding would now be required to trial prior to next racing.

LAIRD OF DELGATIE (J Parkes) – When questioned into the run of the gelding which finished off the race disappointingly after racing in a forward position throughout, J Parkes advised the gelding may have a respiratory issue. A post race veterinary inspection was clear.

Race 7	NEW CENTRAL MOTOR INN 1200

BELLA’S DELIGHT continued to shift out further dictating RED MAFIA wider on the track over the final stages. Stewards lodged a protest against the winner BELLA’S DELIGHT alleging interference to the second placed RED MAFIA. The JCA upheld the protest and relegated BELLA’S DELIGHT to second placing, promoting RED MAFIA to first placing. Placings now read 3-7-13-6.
