Canterbury Jockey Club – 24 February 2017
Race 4 - UNICHEM SPITFIRE SQUARE PHARMACY MAIDEN (1400m)
An inquiry into the riding tactics adopted on WESLEY HALL by Apprentice rider W Papier was concluded. Apprentice Papier was advised that in the view of the Stipendiary Stewards he had erred in his judgement when after being in a position with cover he had shifted outwards passing the 1200 metres and ridden his mount forward to dispute the pace near the 800 metres, then continuing to ride his mount forward with vigour whilst disputing the pace and remaining considerably wider on the track than it was necessary to be, when there was ample opportunity to shift inwards and take a position directly outside the leader HANNAH MARENE. Apprentice Papier was severely reprimanded and advised that he would be expected to show far greater judgement in his riding in future or risk facing charges with Mr Papier to undergo intense tuition under NZTR appointed riding mentors.
