Stewards interviewed riders T Moseley (ACCIDENTAL OFFSIDE) and K Williams (FLAG THE GROOM) over what appeared to be the easing of the pace in the middle stages of this event. Rider T Moseley advised that he had been on a reluctant leader who had raced keenly in the early stages. He further added that at no stage had he restrained his mount and had let the gelding find its own pace during the running. Rider K Williams advised that she was aware the tempo had gone out of the race in the middle stages, however she was reluctant to press forward as she believed that would be detrimental to the chances of her mount. After reviewing replays and taking into consideration the explanations tended by both riders the Stewards were satisfied that neither rider had deliberately eased the pace to an excessive extent that would warrant a charge. Taking all matters into consideration the Stewards advised both riders that in similar circumstances a reasonable pace of the race should be maintained.
